

NOW IT'S CANCER

Startling Statement Regarding Cleveland's Health.

The President Submits to An Operation on the Yacht Onedra.

A Considerable Part of the Upper Jaw Bone Cut Away—He Was Kept in Bed Four Days, the Physicians Announcing the Disease as RHEUMATISM.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.—The Press Tuesday morning published a four-column article confirming dispatches from Boston about a month ago which stated that President Cleveland submitted to an operation on the yacht Onedra for the removal of a cancer. The operation required the cutting away of a considerable part of the upper jaw bone, and so far there has been no serious effect. The Press says that Mr. Cleveland is yet a very sick man, and that his physician fears that mortal disease is still lurking in his system, notwithstanding the efforts of surgeons to relieve him.

Secretary Lamont, who was in the city, a few days ago, was very apprehensive concerning the president's present condition. He said, in answer to a question from Col. Monroe, "The president is a sick man, how sick we can not tell."

It was in the last spring that Mr. Cleveland began to be tormented with a pain which seemed to proceed from a tooth. He endured a great suffering and for many days found little rest. He concealed the trouble from his family, and it is probable that no one excepting Secretary Lamont knew that he had physical trouble as well as mental anxiety to contend with. His physicians made an examination to discover the cause of the trouble, and shortly before the president issued his call for the extra session of congress it was decided that the operation was inevitable.

Arrangements were made in New York and Mr. Cleveland was met on his arrival by Dr. Bryant, Dr. Hasbrouck and another physician. The party boarded the yacht Onedra on Friday. Dr. Hasbrouck had charge of the operation. As soon as Mr. Cleveland boarded the yacht he was put to sleep, and rested well until late the next day.

Sunday it was deemed advisable to use gas as an anesthetic rather than ether, because the operation would be followed by hemorrhages which might possibly lead to a flow of blood into the windpipe. The president yielded easily to the anesthetic, and the surgeons then began their work full of responsibility. The operation required but a few moments. The physicians think that they have removed all of the diseased tissue and bone.

During the operation several teeth were extracted, and it was said when the fact of the operation was first made public, that the president had two or three teeth extracted to prevent hemorrhage. The physicians packed the cavity with antiseptic cotton, so that it might heal speedily. Dr. Hasbrouck remained on the yacht two days to be ready in case a third operation should be found necessary. The wound seemed to heal easily, and the physicians are now confident that the disease may not be so malignant as was feared.

Mr. Cleveland recovered from the shock even better than the physicians had dared to hope. He was kept in bed four days, during which they announced he was suffering from rheumatism. When it became necessary for him to go to Washington the physicians warned him to keep away from work as much as possible. Dr. Bryant accompanied him to Washington and after being there four days issued a peremptory command for the president to return at once to Buzzard's bay.

The president did not wish to go, saying that his services were needed at Washington during the financial crisis, but he obeyed the doctor's orders and the advice of his friends, and returned to Buzzard's bay.

There is much encouragement at present in the fact that the president's condition is greatly improved, and that there will be no recurrence of the malady which rendered the first operation necessary. Dr. Bryant is still with the president, and hopes for his ultimate and full recovery.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The Evening Sun said Tuesday: "It is useless to try to conceal the fact that Mr. Cleveland is a sick man, and the physicians fear more mortal disease is lurking in his system, notwithstanding heroic efforts of surgeons to relieve it during the summer. Secretary Lamont said to Col. Monroe a few days ago: 'The president is a sick man; how sick we can not tell.'"

The Evening Sun also states that an operation was performed on Mr. Cleveland during his recent trip on Mr. Benedict's yacht.

STARTLING INCREASE!

Insanity Last Year.

The increase of insanity last year over the preceding year was startling! Think of it, persons suffering from nervous troubles, such as sick and nervous headache, nervousness, convulsions, neuralgia, apoplexy, dyspepsia, sleeplessness, paralysis, nervous prostration, epilepsy, etc. The outlook would certainly be discouraging for you were there no means of escape. Any of the above difficulties, and many more, are advance symptoms of insanity or some other equally deplorable condition ending in suicide or premature death.

Dr. Franklin Miles, the noted specialist, has devoted over 20 years to the investigation of nervous affections, and in the result of his labors lies the only hope of those afflicted with the troubles named. His Restorative Nervine is a positive means of relief. If you have any nervous affection attend to it at once. Do not wait till your intellect is shattered or the frenzy of suicide overcomes you. Delay is dangerous.

Rev. J. R. Miller, Pastor of the M. E. church, Big Run, Pa., writes: "Overwork caused me to break down completely. The efforts of several good doctors, and eight weeks of travel, did me little good. I could not read or study, and my condition was serious. I began using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, four bottles of which completely cured me. Accept my gratitude."

RED-HOT RESORT.

Rockaway Beach, the Famous Summer and Pleasure Resort, Visited by Fire.

ROCKAWAY BEACH, L. I., Aug. 30.—Rockaway Beach, the famous summer and pleasure resort, was visited by another disastrous fire early Tuesday morning. The place hardly recovered from the conflagration of last fall, when nearly every structure on the beach was destroyed by the flames.

The fire was discovered in the Seaside station of the Rockaway Beach railroad at 2:15 a. m. The flames originated in the top story. Sergt. Wolfert, wife and two children; Section Foreman Anthony Roop, with his family, and five railroad gatemen were asleep at the time on the second floor. They were aroused with difficulty. Wolfert saved his two children but was badly burned. Mrs. Wolfert jumped from the second-story window and was followed by the five gatemen. All the gatemen sustained serious injuries.

A hurricane prevailed at the time and the flames spread with amazing rapidity. Daly's hotel caught fire. The building was filled with summer guests, none of whom had time to dress themselves, and they fled from the structure in their night clothes.

The residents of the beach flocked to the scene and with visions of last year's disaster still fresh in their minds became panic-stricken. The department is not an efficient one, all its paraphernalia, with the exception of one new fire engine, being of old-fashioned pattern. No headway could be made by the firemen and volunteers, and Daly's hotel was soon in ruins. Louis Reynolds' hotel, in the rear of the railroad station, was then attacked by the flames and also damaged.

THEY WILL WAIT.

The Governors of Washington and Montana Will Not Convene Their Legislatures to Elect Senators.

HELENA, Mont., Aug. 30.—Gov. Richards, when asked if he intended to call a session of the legislature for the purpose of electing a United States senator, replied:

"I do not expect to reconvene the legislature for the purpose of electing a United States senator. There may be a contingency arise, which I do not now foresee, which may necessitate an extra session for some other purpose, but I do not expect anything of the kind. Unless the people demand it there will be no extra session for any purpose whatever."

From this it is to be inferred that the legislature meets in January, 1895, and the state of Montana will have but one vote in the upper house of congress.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 30.—Gov. McGraw will not call a special session of the legislature to fill the vacancy caused by the refusal of the senate to seat J. R. Allen, unless a majority of the people of the state demand it.

WESTERN HARVESTING.

World's Fair Visitors View a Surprising Sight in North Dakota.

LARIMOR, N. D., Aug. 30.—The World's fair commissioners, with the foreign farmers, Tuesday morning visited the hundred-thousand-acre farm of the Elk Valley Farming Co., a mile from this 11-year-old town. A large party of North Dakotans came up from Grand Fork to see the harvesting. Among them were Gov. Shortbridge and Mayor Richardson. The procession of carriages drew up in front of forty-two harvesting machines cutting and binding a hundred-and-sixty-acre field of yellow grain. The sight was picturesque, and a revelation in agriculture to many of the foreigners. A prairie chicken lunch was served to the guests in picnic style on the farm under a tent.

TOUGHS AND "PICNICKERS."

A Battle Fought Near Cairo, W. Va., in Which Many Were Hurt.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 30.—A gang of Pleasant county roughs sent word to parties who intended holding a picnic near Cairo, Ritchie county, Saturday, that they intended breaking it up. Early in the day they marched to the grounds, where they were met by the picnickers, thirty strong, and a fearful battle took place. Over fifty men engaged in it. All the combatants were more or less injured. John McCalley and James Vanosel, two oil men, were fatally injured, and a youth named Harvey Thomas, who was endeavoring to rescue a little brother from the mob, was seriously hurt. The battle was the result of an old feud.
